Peter read Music and English at Cambridge before studying the GDL and BVC, for which he was awarded a distinction and an outstanding respectively. He is a Lord Mansfield, Hardwicke and Eastham scholar of Lincoln's Inn. In his BVC year he won the Inn's mooted competition and was awarded the Buchanan Prize. From the College of Law he was awarded commendations in drafting and evidence, and the Tooks Court Prize. In 2008 he came third in the Times Law Awards.

Peter is currently acting as a junior in the following:

- An LCIA arbitration (instructed by SJ Berwin);
- A multi-defendant commercial fraud matter (instructed by Gates and Partners).

Peter also has a busy practice of his own. Work includes:

- A 2 day opposed winding up petition, appearing for an opposing contributory;
- A 1 day trial acting for a bank, which, as mortgagee, was alleged to have continued a nuisance created by the mortgagor;
- Advising on a claim for defamation and breach of confidence;
- Advising on a claim for passing off;
- Advising on the merits of a trustee's claim for a debtor's pension income;
- Advising in relation to the enforcement of a judgment against a partner.
