

Martin Ouwehand

Call: 2002
 Education: BEc, LLB (Hons) (Monash, Melbourne)
 Email: ouwehand@11sb.com
 Telephone: 020 7831 6381

Martin was a barrister and solicitor in Melbourne and then a solicitor at London firm Gouldens (now Jones Day) before joining Chambers in 2002. He has a broad commercial litigation practice particularly in areas such as the sale of goods, cross-border disputes, information technology, construction, professional negligence, partnership and joint venture disputes. He has significant experience in arbitrations.

Martin also has a busy practice in all aspects of corporate insolvency, personal insolvency and company disputes. In 2008 Martin was author of the Recent Case Summaries section of R3's Recovery Magazine. R3 is the Association of Business Recovery Professionals and the Recovery Magazine is R3's official membership publication.

Reported cases for Martin include:

Bankruptcy

Smolen v London Borough of Tower Hamlets [2007] BPIR 448 (Peter Smith J)

An appeal against the making of a bankruptcy order based on Magistrates Court liability orders. Martin appeared for the Petitioner/Respondent.

Landsman v de Concilio [2005] BPIR 829 (Lindsay J)

An appeal in respect of the exercise of discretion under s 264(1)(c) of the Insolvency Act 1986 as to the appointment of a supervisor of an Individual Voluntary Arrangement. Martin appeared for the Supervisor/Appellant.

Leicester v Plumtree Farms Ltd [2004] All ER (D) 396 (Feb) (Etherton J)

An appeal against the striking out of an application to annul a bankruptcy order. Martin appeared for the Trustee/Respondent.

Conflict of Laws

Inter-Tel Inc v Ocis plc [2004] All ER (D) 142 (Oct)

An application to stay English proceedings on the basis of forum non conveniens.

Corporate Insolvency

In the Matter of Pan Interiors Ltd [2005] All ER (D) 176 (Jul) (Warren J)

An application to restrain a winding up petition relating to construction work at Heathrow airport. Martin appeared for the Company/Applicant, Pan Interiors Ltd.

Vecta Software Corporation Ltd v Despec Supplies Ltd (2004) ChD (Patten J) (Lawtel: AC9100352 19/7/2004):

An application to restrain a winding up petition relating to post-dated cheques. Martin appeared for the Company/Applicant, Despec Supplies Ltd.